Terrell Stripling is a seasoned instructor with 20 years of fire service experience and has also worked in the construction industry. He holds a B.S. degree from Oklahoma State University in Fire Protection and Safety Engineering Technology. His experience in fire prevention, code management, and the ability to effectively communicate a pro-active philosophy, is reflected in Terrell's passion for education. At the college level, he has served in the positions of Department Chair and adjunct professor in the Fire Science Department. He is a seasoned instructor that utilizes the theory of the codes along with hands-on, practical application to achieve ICC's vision of "Protecting the health, safety, and welfare of people by creating better buildings and safer communities."
